

TEACHER TRAINING FOR VICTORIA'S COMMUNITY LANGUAGES SCHOOL INSTRUCTORS/TEACHERS

Teacher training is crucial in the process of ensuring quality programs in Victoria's after hour ethnic schools/community languages schools. The Department of Education provides funding to allow teachers to undertake training programs. Tertiary institutions are commissioned to deliver these programs and their content is negotiated. Comments made by teachers and school authorities at conferences and Ethnic Schools Association of Victoria (ESAV) General Meetings are discussed and where practical incorporated. The current series of training programs is the outcome of recent discussions with teachers, tertiary institution representatives and representatives of the Department of Education.

Course Outcomes

This course aims to provide teachers working in community language schools with an understanding of the principles, skills and teaching methods of second language acquisition and teaching in their community language classrooms. This course provides the opportunity to discuss, evaluate and trial a range of teaching strategies, language activities and resources in a series of linked activities based upon appropriate content selected for participants' learner groups.

Upon successful completion of this course, teachers will:

- consider the implications of first and second language acquisition theories for language teaching and learning in Community Languages' Schools across the P-10 context.
- identify the key intercultural understandings they would like their learners to know and value and demonstrate how these relate to their learners' bilingual and bicultural identities
- describe and develop a syllabus, curriculum or program to suit their teaching context
- identify learners' needs, preferred learning styles, and plan for teaching in response to CLIL
- identify the characteristics of a range of aural, written and visual text types and devise a sequence of tasks to develop learners' listening, speaking, reading and writing skills and strategies for their community language.
- develop a series of lesson plans with appropriately expressed objectives; a sequence of language exercises and activities which take into account the language-learning strategies and experiences of a range of learners and
- develop an understanding of the 'reflective model' of teaching by using journal entries to recall past experiences, reflect alone or in discussion with others, in an attempt to understand theories about language teaching in the community language classroom.
